

NB Women's Liberal Commission

Cliquez ici pour lire en français.

Mandate

The two main goals of the New Brunswick Women's Liberal Commission (NBWLC) are to support women candidates running for the Liberal Party at both the provincial and federal level, and to be the voice of women with the Liberal Party at all levels.

The NBWLC partners with the Liberal Party of New Brunswick to recruit and train women interested in getting involved in politics, whether as a Candidate for Nomination or as key campaign organizers.

<!--Women's Commission: Potential Candidate and Campaign Manager Recruitment Letter-->

Get Involved

If you are interested in joining the NBWLC, we would like to hear from you. Please contact Monica Gaudet-Justason, President, NBWLC at info@nbliberal.ca. Or please call the NBLA directly at 1-800-442-4902 or 506-453-3950.

Eligibility

The NBWLC is open to all female members of Liberal Riding Associations within New Brunswick, either through local women's Liberal Clubs or directly as a sustaining member of the NBWLC.

Tony Barry Fund

Founded in 1996, The Tony Barry Fund financially assists nominated women Liberals seeking election to the New Brunswick Legislature. As part of its mandate, the Tony Barry Fund promotes awareness of elected and/or leadership opportunities for women in provincial and federal politics.

NBWLC Executive

(Vacant)

President

Claire Leblanc

2nd Vice President

Cindy Miles

VP Policy

Véronique Arsenault

VP Communications

Anna Hartley

Secretary

Leah Laroque

Treasurer

Wendy Robbins

Past President